

Los Angeles OneCareNow Rally

August 11, 2007

State Lt. Governor John Garamendi, who was formerly California Insurance Commissioner, spoke passionately for single payer health insurance.

Members of the LWVC Healthcare Committee celebrate with LWVC President Janis Hirohama after the rally.

George Savage, co-chair, started off the rally with a hearty welcome.

Lily Tomlin entertained the crowd with renditions of insurance company treatments of their insureds.

Senator Sheila Kuehl was applauded loudly.

Dolores Huerta spoke of the need to speak out for universal single payer healthcare.

LWVC President Janis Hirohama, who spoke on behalf of the League, and Social Policy Director Julie Rajan enjoyed the success of the day.
